Use of Technology

Summer Camp is a program that promotes the use of technology and helps campers become familiar with it. However, its indiscriminate use is not recommended. All campers will be able to contact their parents by phone through the Eduact staff. If a camper wishes to own a mobile phone, he/she will be able to use it to communicate with their parents, however Eduact will not be responsible for the use of a mobile phone.

Finally, it is prohibited to use it during use during the activities nor the publication of audiovisual material during the activities.

The use of audiovisual material on the Internet is not permitted during the activities.
